

House Wines

Castle Venlaw Grenache Blanc 2007 £18.95

This wine is truly remarkable. It has a soft voluptuous “Viognier” character of melons, lemons and lychees with an excellent length of flavour. Crisp yet rounded, full yet excellent.

Castle Venlaw Syrah 2006 £18.95

A great example of a juicy and delicious Vin de Pays Syrah, Unoaked and wonderfully ripe, with flavours of blackberries, raspberries and just a hint of chocolate. Soft, silky tannins make this a very easy drinking wine. A lovely expression of Mediterranean sunshine.

Castle Venlaw Cinsault Rosé 2006 £18.95

Very fruity, aromatic wine, with scents of raspberries, strawberries and grenadine. This is a pleasant, easy drinking wine with a well-balanced fruity palate of cherries and watermelon, roundness and length, good acidity and freshness.

Castle Venlaw Brut Champagne £38.95

A Champagne specially bottled for us by Poilvert ~Jacques, this Champagne exhibits wonderfully classic biscuity yeasty aroma with rich soft fruits and a touch of vanilla essence.

The White Wines

France

From The Loire Valley

- 1) Muscadet de Sevre et Maine sur lie 2007 £18.95
A great seafood wine from the Loire valley in France. Left on it's yeasty lees to extract maximum flavour. A refreshing, lively, white wine.
- 2) Sancerre 2007 Paul Doucet et Fils £32.95
From the famous Loire Valley in France. Solid, herbaceous, Sauvignon fruit which is firm on the palate. A perfect foil to our fish and seafood dishes.
- 3) Pouilly Fume 'Chateau De L'Abbaye' 2007 £30.95
The famous cousin of Sancerre, this is a single vineyard Pouilly Fume. The wines from Pouilly have a lovely distinctive minerality, which balances the fresh Sauvignon Blanc fruit.

From Burgundy

- 6) Chablis La Chablisienne 2006 'La Sereine' £36.95
Chardonnay from the most northern edge of Burgundy, grown on chalky soils and fermented without wood. Full of fruit and delicious with all white meat and fish dishes.
- 7) Chablis 1er Cru Mont de Millieu 2005 £52.95
Classic single vineyard Chablis. A lovely mineral fruit quality combined with beautiful structure.
- 8) St Veran 2006 'Moulin du Pont' Auvigie Bros £32.95
Made from Chardonnay grapes, grown in the Southern part of the Burgundy Region. The Auvigie brothers produce white Burgundy of impeccable character. Lean citrusy mineral notes, with a beautifully balanced palate.
- 9) Pouilly Fuisse Hors Classe 2006 Auvigie £54.95
A rounded and smooth white Burgundy. A near perfect combination of citrus fruit and minerality. Perfect with fish, white meats and pork dishes.
- 10) Givry 1^{er} Cru 'Clos de la Servoisine' Domaine Joblot 2006 £57.95
A hidden gem, the village of Givry is not quite so famous as others in the region but the wines are as good as the most famous names! Complex. clean beautifully structured chardonnay from an exceptional producer.

The Islands

Isle of Skye 8 Year Old £3.50

An 8 year old blended malt. Honey and vanilla, sweet Speyside flavours, are allied with smoky and peaty Island influences to give a well balanced distinctive blend

Isle of Jura 10 Year Old £6.50

A very accessible, easy-drinking malt. Medium-bodied with a delicate sweet palate, with a hint of brine developing on the finish. A great introductory malt.

Talisker 10 Year Old £5.50

A massive success as the island representative in Diageo's 'Classic Malts' series, Talisker's profile keeps increasing as more fans discover its intense coastal spicy, peaty character. A truly elemental malt.

Tobermory 10 Year Old £5.50

The unpeated malt from the producers of Ledaig, Tobermory hails from the Isle of Mull and is a more gentle medium-bodied, accessible malt than its peated sister. A good aperitif malt.

Highland Park 12 Year Old "Flat Bottle" £5.50

An old favourite in new packaging. Still as smooth, sweet and smoky as ever. "The greatest all-rounder in the world of malt whisky".

Ledaig 10 Year Old £5.50

Produced at the Tobermory Distillery, the only distillery on the picturesque Hebridean Isle of Mull. Its name comes from the original name for the area, Ledaig (Led-chig), from the Gaelic, meaning 'safe haven'.

Ledaig, unlike Tobermory, is distilled from heavily peated malted barley, leading to a single malt with a highly distinctive peaty, smoky taste. The result is an intricate Island Malt Scotch Whisky.

Islay

Lagavulin 16 Year Old £7.50

Deep, dry and exceptionally peaty. Probably the most pungent of all Islay malts, Lagavulin is not for the faint-hearted but inspires fanatical devotion in its many followers.

Bunnahabhain 12 Year Old £6.50

A very lightly-peated malt that serves as perhaps the mildest introduction to the Islay style. Floral and fruity tones dominate with the peat influence in the background.

The Highlands

Dalwhinnie 15 Year Old £5.50

A good introduction to the delights of single malt whisky - elegant, smooth and medium-bodied with a light, fruity palate and a whiff of heather on the finish.

Oban 14 Year Old £7.50

The Western Highland representative in Diageo's 'Classic Malt' series is a superb, full-blooded fruity malt with a whiff of heather and more than a hint of peat.

Glengoyne 10 Year Old £5.50

One of very few Scottish whiskies to be distilled from unpeated malt - the malt is allowed to dry naturally before fermentation and distillation begin, resulting in an elegant, medium-bodied style.

Deanston 12 Year Old £5.50

A relaunch in for Burn Stewart's Deanston single malt. Trivia snatched from the Malt Whisky Yearbook: Deanston is the only distillery in Scotland that is self-sustaining for electricity, being equipped with a dam and a turbine.

Glenmorangie 10 Year Old "The Original" £5.50

A relaunch for the standard Glenmorangie, encompassing a new design, label, bottle and even a new name, 'The Original'. Thankfully, it's still 10 years old and still Glenmorangie, so it'll still be excellent.

The Lowlands

Auchentoshan 12 Year Old £5.50

A deliciously smooth, mellow long-aged Auchentoshan. A sophisticated and well-balanced dram to savour slowly after a good meal.

Glenkinchie 10 Year Old £6.50

Much-loved dry, fruity, vanilla-tinged Lowland expression of the 'Classic Malt' range. One of only a few surviving Lowland distilleries still in production.

Glenkinchie 12 Year Old £6.50

Replacing the 10 year-old as the main expression of the Lowland style in the Classic Malts range, a bit fuller and more complex.

Cocktails

Martini

£3.95

The most commonly mixed cocktail in the world, the martini is truly a classic. Traditionally made with Gin and Dry Vermouth there have been many variations on this classic cocktail. We can do you either gin or vodka.

Manhattan

£6.50

A popular history says this drink was created by Jennie Jerome, Winston Churchill's mother, for presidential candidate Samuel J. Tilden. It has been referred as the drinking man's cocktail – strong, urbane and simple, as well as the “king of cocktails”. It is mixed from Whisky and Sweet Vermouth.

Cosmopolitan

£6.50

Also known as the Cosmo, this drink is made from Vodka, Cointreau and Cranberry Juice with a squeeze of Lime. There are many different stories about where the drink originated but it is considered to have been in the late 80's. Its popularity took off in the 90's, some crediting it to the show “Sex & The City”.

Daiquirí

The name Daiquirí is also the name of a beach near Santiago, Cuba, and an iron mine in that area. The cocktail was supposedly invented about 1905 in a bar named Venus by an American mining engineer called Jennings Cox, and the story persists that Cox invented the drink when he ran out of gin while entertaining American guests. We use Bacardi White Rum in ours.

Godfather

£5.50

The Godfather is Amaretto and Scotch, on the rocks. One could make the connection between The Godfather movies and this drink which uses the sweet Italian liqueur, amaretto, and the robust, hard flavours of a smooth Scotch

White Russian

£5.50

Also known as the Caucasian, this classic has been around since the Cold War era. The White Russian has been named not because it is a traditional Russian drink but due to the fact that the drink contains vodka. Rather it is a pun on the name of the anti-Bolshevik "White Russians" from the Russian Civil War. Made from Vodka, Coffee Liqueur and milk, this is a great after dinner sipper.
